

The IFA Australia Branch is pleased to invite you to the following event:

Pop-Up Lunchtime Briefing: New International Tax Order

On 1 July 2021, 131 members of the OECD Inclusive Framework (including Australia and 90% of the world economy) agreed to a “Two Pillars” international tax proposal, which is also on the agenda for the G20 Finance Ministers’ meeting on 9-10 July 2021. Our Panel will discuss and debate the plan and its implications in Australia and internationally.

Date and time

Friday, 16 July 2021, 12.30pm to 2pm

This is a virtual event. Please RSVP to Jenny Huynh at JHuynh@abl.com.au. Details for joining the webinar will be sent to you by email prior to the session.

Speaker: Maryanne Mrakovcic is the Deputy Secretary, Revenue Group at Treasury responsible for advising the Australian Government on all taxation policy matters, revenue forecasting and the Treasury portfolio legislation program. Maryanne has also represented Australia at the OECD Inclusive Framework since 2016, became a member of the Steering Group in January 2020, and Vice-Chair in January 2021, where she has been actively involved in the development of the “Two Pillars” international tax reforms.

Speaker: Ann-Maree Wolff is Global Head of Tax at Rio Tinto responsible for all tax matters relevant to Rio Tinto. Ann-Maree is extensively involved in tax policy development both directly with policymakers and via taxpayer and industry associations like the International Council on Mining & Metals.

Speaker: Heydon Wardell-Burrus is Acting Assistant Commissioner, Policy, Analysis and Legislation at the ATO and is completing his DPhil at Oxford University on Global Minimum Taxes.

Chair: Chloe Burnett SC is a member of the NSW Bar specialising in tax law and an Adjunct Lecturer at Sydney Law School. She is an active member of IFA and for the last three years chaired the Recent Developments panel at the global IFA Congress.
